

MEET MIXOLOGIST JORDIE HO-SHUE

Jordie is a veteran within the Bay Area's craft cocktail scene, where she has built a reputation for making perfectly balanced daiquiris. Jordie's lifelong preoccupation with rum has largely been influenced by the years she spent growing up in Jamaica. Jordie has participated in several regional and national cocktail competitions throughout her career, but her proudest hallmarks have been placing top 8 in the national competition Speedrack, as well as developing Shaker & Spoon's best selling cocktail of 2019.
